

Join the Friends of Crane Meadows National Wildlife Refuge
for the annual

Spring Bird Walk

Enjoy a morning of birding at Crane
Meadows National Wildlife Refuge on Saturday, May 10th!

Join Refuge staff, Friends members, and experienced birder Frank Gosiak as we walk the Platte River Trail in search of spring migrants. No experience is necessary. Dress for the weather and hiking. Walk will be about two hours in duration.

Bring your camera if you wish and binoculars if you have them. The Refuge has binoculars available for use as well.

Meet at the Refuge Headquarters' Shop at 8:00AM on Saturday, May 10th. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

For more information, call Refuge Headquarters at 320-632-1575.
